You are an intern in a law firm. One of the firm's clients is a French company specialised in industrial valves and pumps, that is negotiating a contract with a Qatari company about the procurement of equipment for a plant. The draft contract includes the following arbitration clause. What do you think of it?

Any dispute relating to the conclusion of this contract shall be submitted for final settlement to the Court of International Arbitration of Romania. The applicable law shall be Swiss Code of Obligations and international trade principles. The seat of arbitration shall be Doha, Qatar. The arbitral tribunal shall rule as amiable compositeur. Any party shall have the right to appeal the award.
